

ZAF622 Fort Collins Art Webzine

issue #14

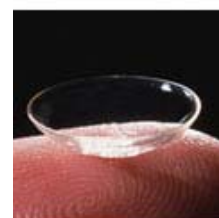

Kumiko S. McKee

Kumiko is a Japanese contemporary artist living in Fort Collins who uses classical techniques to create realistic images that are partly abstract. Her paintings exhibit a high level of detail with finely rendered figures and complicated patterns. They are not only beautiful to look at, but contain individualized stories. That is what her website tells. Scott Mastro interviewed her for ZAF622 to find out a bit more about this artist and what she is up to.

read entire story...

Subscribe

Contact

Editor's Desk

About ZAF622

Plus + Human Organics

Art Fundraiser for the Rocky Mountain Sustainable Living Association

ZAF622 has a chat with the Director of the show, dRE Williams. The show was Friday, February 9, 2007 and featured 53 Artists from all over Colorado as well as California, D.C., Illinois, Rhode Island, Hawaii, Pennsylvania, Florida and New Mexico. Each Artist is donating 50% of their sales to the RMSLA. The show will include Digital Prints, Drawings, Giclee Prints, Paintings, Collages, Assemblages, Photography and Sculpture.

read entire story...

Extended Exhibit

HUMAN ORGANICS

Feb 15th to 25th at these locations

Canyon Spirit Gallery
246 Pine Street
970.221.1778
www.canyonspiritgallery.com

5 Old Town Square
970.498.0483
www.coopersmithspub.com

50% of sales donated to the Rocky Mountain Sustainable Living Association
www.sustainablelivingassociation.org/humanorganics

2006 Back Issues

[\[Home\]](#) [\[Subscribe\]](#) [\[Contact\]](#) [\[FtC Art Events\]](#) [\[Human Organics\]](#) [\[Interview #14\]](#) [\[Back Issues\]](#)